Semester 1: 30 September of the proceeding year

Semester 2: 31 March of the current year

Academic requirements

Language requirements	The English level required for all international exchange students will be: Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). Minimum marks required are: Writing: 22, Speaking: 23, Reading: 21, Listening: 27 Total: 93, through the medium of English or official confirmation of English language proficiency from home institution.
Areas and subjects available to exchange students	All courses, except selection courses, can be negotiated between students and faculty.
Courses at master's level	Courses can be taken on master's level, depending on each faculty's requirements
Choosing modules at UP	Each prospective exchange student must negotiate his/her own subjects/modules with the relevant academic department. A list of subjects/modules offered at the University of Pretoria (UP) is available: https://www.up.ac.za/yearbooks/home

Select your relevant yearbook and choose your subjects/modules. Please note that you may not choose year subjects/modules. Only semester subjects/modules will be taken into account for academic credits.

Credits and grading	Each student will carry a normal study load per semester. Credits obtained will depend on the number of modules prescribed for a specific degree programme.
Grading of credits	Grading values are given in percentages. The minimum pass for each module taken is 50%.

Accommodation

Formal UP accommodation	The International Cooperation Division (ICD) will assist students in obtaining accommodation on campus. However, accommodation will be allocated on a first come, first served basis and is not guaranteed. Accommodation is situated in Hatfield and the surrounding areas. Exchange students must apply for accommodation via the ICD when applying to study at UP. Accommodation is approximately R6000,00 per month and subject to change for 2023 and is for the student's own account.
Alternative accommodation	Private accommodation companies on campus will assist students in finding accommodation, should formal accommodation not be available.

Immigration Clearance

Study visa	As soon as they have been admitted, students must apply for study visas at the South African High Commission in their home countries or nearest neighbouring country. Students are not allowed to proceed to South Africa without the valid study visa.
Recommended medical aid providers	Students must join Momentum Health (Ingwe option) and Comp Care Medical Scheme in order for them to be registered. Health insurance or foreign medical cover will not be accepted. Students can apply online at www.ingwehealth.co.za and https://compcare.co.za/ Medical cover must be paid in advance for the full period for which the study visa is issued. No exceptions will be made.

General information

Special orientation programme	The ICD hosts a special orientation programme for all newcomers to UP. It is compulsory for all exchange and study abroad students to attend this programme.
Estimated living costs	It is advised that students prepare to spend approximately R8 000, 00 (ZAR) per month for the duration of their stay.
Leisure time	South Africa offers a range of activities that people from abroad will enjoy. ICD staff members can assist you in organising field trips, etc.
